

The Palomar: Restaurant Manager

About Us

Opening in May 2014, The Palomar has become one of the most innovative and exciting restaurants in London. We serve the food of modern day Jerusalem and have won OFM 'Best Restaurant', Tatler 'Restaurant of the Year', and the GQ 'Best Restaurant' Award. The Palomar team is a close-knit group of people who love what we do. We put our hearts and souls into our work and are constantly striving to improve.

Job Description

The Palomar is a busy, boisterous and energetic restaurant and we are looking for the right person to manage the day to day operations. You will be looking after an absolutely lovely front of house team, and by reinforcing our company values, you will lead by example, share your skills and knowledge, and model behaviours to inform, inspire and motivate others. Delivering an excellent level of service is of course paramount in this role. As the business grows there will be plenty of scope for the right candidate to grow with us, and we are looking for someone who is as excited as we are about working together and moving the business forward.

Your duties will include:

- Managing and developing staff
- Maintaining and developing product and service standards
- Ensuring outstanding customer experience
- Contributing to the ongoing improvement of the restaurant as a whole
- Management of premises
- General housekeeping across all departments

The Ideal Candidate

We are looking for someone warm and vibrant, ready to take on a new challenge. Flexibility and good humour is key, as you should be able to roll with and take on whatever each day brings with a positive attitude and a firm hand. The ideal candidate should already have a strong background in hospitality, enjoy working in a lively and fast paced environment, and care greatly about the people around them, demonstrating:

- Excellent organisational skills
- A strong work ethic
- Warmth and passion
- A collaborative approach
- Quality and attention to detail
- A desire to learn and develop

Highly competitive salary, dependent on experience